Providers may also request through the case conferencing administration process, for clients to be considered for rapid re-housing prioritization under the following conditions:

1. Rental assistance is needed in order to access a permanent housing solution, i.e. foster care home, section 8 choice voucher program, where but for this instance, this permanent housing solution could not be reasonably obtained and there is evidence of authentic need through the verified eligibility determination of said permanent housing solution's program.
2. Clients actively enrolled and participating in a professionally recognized employment development program and as part of the homeless service provider's housing, service, or case management plan, may be considered for rapid re-housing prioritization when identified by the respective programs to CES administration.
